FOR HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

GEORGE H. SNOW,

OF WAKE.

ELECTION 1ST THURSDAY IN AUGUST.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Wake county Work House has only two inmates at present.

The Board of County Commissioners will meet in this city on Monday.

Hon. W. A. Moore, Judge of the 2d Judicial District, is in the city, stopping at the National.

Plans and specifications for the government building have arrived in the city and are now at the postoffice.

Rev. L. Branson left this city Wednesday afternoon to attend the meeting of the Local Ministers' Association at Marion, McDowell county.

Mr. Jos. G. Bromell has that much admired poem "Beautiful Snow" tastefully printed in sheet form, which he sells reasonably. It is refreshing to read it this hot weather.

Our townsman, F. H. Busbee, killed a rattlesnake in Burke county the other day, which measured four feet and six inches in length and eight inches in circumference, with twelve rattles.

Only one case came before his Honor, Mayor Whitaker, yesterday. It was a small sized scrimmage, in which no one was hurt. One of the parties was fined $5. Names suppressed at request of the parties engaged.

We learn that a weekly paper is soon to issue in this city in the ostensible interest of the workingmen, with T. M. Argo as editor. We suppose this means war on the Granges. We further learn that the machine is to be owned by a company of office-holders.

The Messrs. Gill, of Exchange Place, having received a very superior article of scuppernong wine, sent to our better-half, (through us,) a bottle of the same. As we are strictly a temperance man, and our "better-half" being absent from the city, we sent the wine to another man's "better-half," whose opinion upon the same we'll give when she tries it on.

We are fond of watermelons and hail their coming with pleasure, but there is one evil attendant upon their advent: Boys will indulge in that disreputable practice of hurling rinds in the streets, much the discomfort of the nervous. Then again, these rinds are very persuasive in their manner in making one acquainted with the amount of hardness there is in the pavement.

The Chatham Educational Association holds its annual session at Mt. Vernon Springs, in Chatham, August 14th, 1873. The Annual Introductory Address will be delivered by Rev. S. Pool, A. M., of Chapel Hill, on Thursday August 14th, at 11 o'clock a. m. Addresses will also be delivered by D. M. Thompson, Esq., Principal of Sylvan High School, Hon. Alexander McIver, Supe intendent of Public Instruction, Capt. C. F. Siler, A. M., Principal of Mt. Vernon Academy, and others. The beauty of the country and the value of the medicinal waters, will add pleasure to an attendance. Any further information may be obtained by addressing the President, Maj. R. W. York, Morrisville, N. C.

APPOINTED.—Mr. Marmaduke Hawkins, son of Dr. W. J. Hawkins, has been appointed a Notary Public for Warren county by Gov. Caldwell. The appointment was made upon a petition from a large number of the best citizens of Warren county. Mr. Hawkins is a young lawyer of much promise and will, we have no doubt, prove to be an ornament to the bar of North Carolina.

UNMAILABLE LETTERS.—The following letters are now held in the postoffice of this city for lack of proper postage: Thomas T Scot', Tarboro, N C; Miss Emma C Jones, Chapel Hill, N C; Mrs Harriet Cox, Lynn, Mass; Mrs Burlina Fort, Forestville, N C; Mr Richardson, Ridgeway Hotel, Ridgeway, N C; Messrs Robert Haugh & Sons, Baltimore, Md.

SUPREME COUNCIL OF FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE.—The journal of the Fourth biennial session of the Supreme Council, Friends of Temperance, held in this city June 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, is before us. We are glad to see from the report of the Committee on the State of the Order that this organization is now in a flourishing condition, and its motto is still upward and onward. Success to the Friends.

COTTON FACTORIES.—It is very well known that few towns in the South are improving more rapidly than Raleigh. Our population is steadily increasing. Capital is flowing into the city in a continual stream. Where commercial transactions, a few years ago, were measured by hundreds of dollars, they are now counted by thousands.

This is all well. But if the city is to advance steadily in the future in her prosperity, we are of the opinion that her live citizens must give some attention to the establishment of manufactories in our midst.

One of President Grant's best speeches (in fact, we think, the best and longest speech of his, we ever read) was his address at the depot, to the citizens of some little Western city. It ran thus: "Gentlemen, your town owes its prosperity to your manufactories; keep on manufacturing, and you will keep on prospering. Good-night."

There are various kinds of manufacturing enterprises that we believe would pay in this city. But we will speak today of only one.

Our city is getting to be a cotton market of very respectable proportions; but every pound of the royal staple that is seen on our streets, drops the best part of the profits of its handling somewhere else.

Why cannot a steam spinning and weaving establishment be gotten up here with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars? Nothing, it seems to us, is more easy.

We suggest that one hundred (or fewer) subscribers take the stock. Let them select a committee of practical men out of their number who will consent, without making any charge for their attention to the matter, to contract for suitable buildings and machinery to spin and weave cotton, on the scale above indicated.

When the buildings and machinery are all ready for work and in apple pie order, let the same Committee, or another one be appointed to lease the whole establishment for five or ten years to the highest responsible bidder. The proposals for lease, well advertised, would insure competition among practical spinners as certainly as that a well stocked and fertile plantation would find tenants or that a well arranged store offered for rent would secure a lessee.

The original stockholders would thus save their investment, and doubtless make it profitable to themselves, without the hazards of wreck, that often befall enterprises. Hundreds of practical spinners, with means enough to secure the rent, would be ready to come from the North or from England and take charge of such a mill.

The lessee would, in such case, know that all the stockholders at least would be his friends, but little less interested in his success than he himself.

Trip of the Citizens' Cornet Band.

The Citizens' Cornet Band of Raleigh left the city on Tuesday for Ridgeway having been engaged to play at the examination exercises of that excellent Academy by Mr. L. A. Williams, near the above mentioned place. We arrived at Ridgeway in due time and were most hospitably received and entertained by the manager of the hotel. Early next morning (Wednesday) we set out for the Academy, a distance of two miles, which we reached after a pleasant ride in the bracing morning air. We were received by Mr. L. A. Williams, the gentlemanly and highly efficient principal of the Nutbush Male Academy who showered upon us the hospitality of which his section is famous, together with a genuine old Warren county welcome that has to be seen and felt to be appreciated properly.

The people of the neighborhood commenced gathering at the Academy at early morn, which continued in a perfect rush till 12 o'clock. We do not exaggerate at all when we say 1,500 persons were present.

The examination commenced at 9½ o'clock. The exercises were of a peculiarly interesting character, reflecting great credit upon the thorough efficiency of Mr. Williams, the principal.

The large public dinner given by the patrons of the school was one of the important features of the occasion. A separate table was provided for the Band, which was ladened with everything good to eat.

The evening exercises commenced with declamation and dialogues by the pupils, and all passed off well.

In conclusion we desire to return our thanks to Mr. Williams for the many kindnesses received at his hands, and also to Mr. and Mrs. Paschall, who contributed no little to the general enjoyment of the CITIZENS' CORNET BAND.

APOLOGETIC.—Apologies are seldom made by the NEWS. It is rather "agin" our principle to make one, but sometimes a necessity occurs wherein it becomes obligatory, and that's just what's the matter now. "Mistakes will occur in the best regulated families," said some one who knew very well how to tell the truth, and our family is by no means an exception to that rule.

Thursday morning our pressman fell asleep just before the hour for closing up the forms, and before he could be found the Eastern mail had passed. For the first time since the flood, we lost that mail, a fact that we sincerely regret and will take especial pains and precaution to see that it never occurs again.

SUPREME COURT.—According to adjournment, the Court met yesterday at 9 o'clock. The case of the State vs the Richmond & Danville Railroad was resumed.

The argument of Messrs. W. N. H. Smith and Joseph B. Batchelor, and Attorney General Hargrove, for the State, consumed the session of Court. At 12:30 the Court adjourned to meet again this morning at the usual hour, when Messrs. A. S. Merrimon and Judge Fowle, on the part of the defendants, will have a hearing.

STOCKHOLDER'S MEETING OF THE RALEIGH & GASTON RAILROAD.—Pursuant to notice, the Stockholders of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad met in the office of the Company at 11 o'clock yesterday morning.

Dr. Hawkins, the President, called the meeting to order, when, on motion, Col. David M. Carter, of Beaufort, was elected chairman.

Major W. W. Vass and Thos. Badger, were requested to as Secretaries.

A. M. McPheeters, Esq., from the Standing Committee on Stock and Proxies, made a report of the representation, both in person and by proxy, which report showed that a quorum was not present.

Dr. Hawkins read private dispatch from Major G. W. Grice, a director and a large stockholder, dated New York, stating his inability to be present and asking that the meeting be adjourned till October.

Hon. B. F. Moore, moved that as there was not a quorum present, and as others might come in on the evening train, a recess be taken till 4 o'clock. Adopted.

Before the motion of Mr. Moore was put to the meeting, Capt. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, made a brief speech in regard to the tardiness of large stockholders in not being present at the meeting. He thought the dispatch of Maj. Grice offensive to the meeting, and he should so consider it, &c.

Adjourned to meet at 4 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The meeting was called to order at 4 o'clock by the Chairman.

There still being no quorum, on motion, the meeting adjourned till the 21st day of August.

THE HEALTH OF THE CITY.—Some days ago we stated that the health of the city was not by far so good as it was during the same season last year. We made this statement on the strength of various reports coming, as we then believed from reliable authority. We are glad to say now, though the health of the city is not by any means so good as it was at this time last year, that the reports were greatly exaggerated. If our people could be induced to avoid unnecessary exposure and be prudent in their diet, and the city authorities prevailed upon to take common sanitary precautions, this sickness would soon be reduced within ordinary bounds.

C. D. HEARTT & Co.—These enterprising hat and shoe dealers are, we are pleased to learn, doing a thriving business. They are young gentlemen of merit and industry, and by close attention to business and promptness in all their transactions have succeeded in establishing themselves in the confidence of the community. They have fitted up their rear room in a very tasty manner as a retiring place for ladies when trying on shoes. We hope these gentlemen will meet with an increased patronage, as they richly deserve it.

CARMER, THE DRUGGIST.—By an examination of our advertising columns it will be seen that Carmer, the Druggist, has on hand at all times fresh drugs, chemicals, &c., and every article usually kept in a first class establishment of the kind. He has just received a large and well selected stock of soaps and perfumeries, combs, brushes, &c., which he says are marked at prices so low that he will be compelled to win. Read Carmer's advertisement, then go and see him.

A NORTH CAROLINA SHARK.—We were presented yesterday by Dr. Eugene Grissom with a young shark about fourteen inches in length, preserved in alcohol, which was caught by him with a hook and line on Tuesday last at Fort Macon. The Doctor was on a visit to the seaside when he received the telegram announcing the death of his steward, Mr. Huggins. He left on the first train and arrived here just in time to attend the funeral.

VETERANS OF THE MEXICAN WAR.—A meeting of the veterans of the Mexican war of this place and the vicinity, will be held in this city on to-morrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at the office of Messrs. Nichols & Co. This meeting is, we learn, a preliminary step towards forming an Association, such as are now in existence in various cities of the Union. We hope the meeting will be well attended, and that the participants may succeed in forming the Association, and that it may flourish and have many pleasant re-unions in the future.

AGRICULTURAL AND MECHANICAL FAIR ASSOCIATION.—We return our thanks to Mr. B. F. Rogers, Secretary of the Western North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical Fair Association, for a complimentary ticket to the annual exhibition which occurs on the 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th of October. Hon. M. W. Ransom has accepted the invitation to deliver the annual address on the occasion, a fact that will prove a great "draw."

THE ROANOKE NEWS.—Much to our disappointment we have failed to receive several past numbers of this valuable exchange. Will not Bro. Manning investigate the matter?

Says the Richmond (Va.) Dispatch of the 17th inst.:

The alleged seconds in the duel, Messrs. Trigg, Royal and Tabb appeared before the Hustings Court yesterday morning and announced themselves ready for trial. The attorney for the Commonwealth said that the principal, Mr. McCarty, had not been and could not be indicted at present; that he was not willing to try the accessories before the principal was arraigned, and further, that he could not avail himself of the important evidence of Dr. Cullen, the recusant witness, who still refused to testify; therefore he asked for a continuance of the case. The counsel for the defence then asked a renewal of the defendants' bail on the ground that they had been enlarged by a court of competent jurisdiction, whose action his Honor should respect; and secondly, that as the case was continued at the instance of the Commonwealth, when the accused were pressing for a hearing, they were entitled to be bailed.

Judge Guigon took until 12 o'clock to-day to consider the subject, and at that hour will deliver his opinion.

Singular to relate, there is not now living a single descendant in the male line of Chaucer, Shakespeare, Spenser, Milton, Cowley, Butler, Dryden, Pope, Cowper, Goldsmith, Scott, Byron, Moore, Sir Philip Sidney, or Sir Walter Raleigh; not one of Drake, Cromwell, Hampden, Monk, Marlborough, Peterborough, or Nelson; not one of Stafford, Ormond, or Clarendon; not one of Addison, Swift, or Johnson; not one of Walpole, Bolingbroke, Chatham, Pitt, Fox, Burke, Grattan, or Canning; not one of Bacon, Locke, Newton, or Davy; not one of Hume, Gibbon, or Macauly; not one of Hogarth, or Sir Joshua Reynolds; not one of David Garrick, John Kemble, or Edmund Kean.

A lady in Lynn, Mass., last week sold a bag of rags to a peddler. She was perfectly well satisfied with her bargain until she remembered that in order to guard against thieves and robbers she had secreted in the bag two bank books, notes, and so forth, to the value of about $4,000. But considering how careless she had been she was luckier than she deserved to be, for with all the energy and acuteness of despair, she sought for that peddler, found him in Salem, and recovered her treasure.

The postoffice in Petersburg, Va., has been designated by the Department at Washington as an International Money Order Office. Orders can now be purchased at this office payable at any postoffice in great Britain and Ireland.

Some of our Virginia cotemporaries think that Colonel John Goode stands a good chance to secure the Conservative gubernatorial nomination at the approaching Convention, which is to be held in Richmond next month.

It is now thought that the late storm in the West will not effect the wheat crop to any material extent.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Dr' Sears' Report in Reference to the Peabody Fund.

NEW YORK, July 17.—The following are interesting details of Dr. Sear's report on schools in the South:

Virginia.—The number of public schools in the State for the year ending August 1st, 1872 is 3,695 and the school population consisted of 411,021 persons between the ages of 5 and 21 years. Of the whole 247,02 were whites and 164,019 colored. Of the assistance received from the fund twenty-eight thousand nine hundred dollars was appropriated to Virginia schools. During the past scholastic year. The bulk of this was given in aid of graded schools.

The total amount appropriated to schools of the State was thirty eight thousand two hundred dollars.

North Carolina.—The condition of public schools and education generally in this State is far from satisfactory. There is an alarming indifference on the subject among the common people, and want of union and hearty co-operation among the public men. The amount appropriated to schools in this State was $12,550.

South Carolina.—Few schools are reported throughout the year. Application was made for Charleston as follows: The Legislature at its last session appropriated over three hundred thousand dollars for educational purposes. Not one dollar of this amount was received from the treasury, and the result has been that nearly all public schools in this State have been closed. The amount paid this State from the fund is $1,500.

Georgia.—Dr. Sears quotes from the report of the State Superintendent: "It i not to be disguised that the effort thus far to establish a public school system for the State has resulted in comparative failure." The fund contributed is ten thousand two hundred dollars to twelve schools.

Florida.—A somewhat gloomy picture of the condition of education in this State, is given from the report of the State Superintendent, who, amongst other remarks, says: "It is saddening to reflect that three-fourths of the youths of this State are yet unreached by the educational system," but adds, "it is encouraging to know that the ratio is rapidly changing." The Peabody fund contributed $8,000 in aid of fourteen schools.

Alabama.—The State Superintendent of Alabama gives a despondent report. Out of a population of one million, three hundred and eighty-three thousand can neither read or write. Of the voting population there are ninety-one thousand blacks and seventeen thousand whites who cannot read or write. Enough, if consolidated into one party, to control every election in the State. The State funds paid $606,617.35 during the year, and the Peabody fund $7,000 to five schools.

Mississippi.—By the new school law in addition to the State tax of four mills on the dollar for the payment of teachers, supervisors of counties are required to levy a county tax for school purposes and incidental expenses. By the estimate of the county superintendents there are four thousand six hundred and fifty public schools, with an average attendance of one hundred and twenty-five thousand and four hundred; private schools with an attendance of a hundred and forty-eight thousand seven hundred and eighty pupils enrolled. The expense of common schools is one million one hundred thirty-six thousand nine hundred and eighty-eight dollars, and the Peabody Fund contributed four thousand four hundred and fifty dollars to aid six schools.

Louisiana.—On recommendation of the agent of the Fund who acts gratuitously in the State, the sum of seven thousand three hundred and eighty dollars was contributed to aid schools.

Texas.—In the unsettled state of school matters the general agent was constrained to reply to the last letter of the State Superintendent, which was a new call for money, that in the present unsettled condition of the system there the trustees did not feel justified in making donations from the Fund.

FRIDAY.....JULY 18, 1873.

THE ELECTION, AUGUST 7TH.

The election to be held in this State on the first Thursday in August, on the constitutional amendments, is one of vast importance to our people.

It involves vital changes in the organic law of the State.

For the information of voters, we publish on our fourth page, and shall keep standing until the day of election, the clauses in the Constitution proposed to be altered, together with the eight amendments that passed the Legislature by the requisite constitutional majority, and which are to be submitted to the people for approval or rejection, on Thursday, the seventh day of August next.

All the amendments proposed are necessary and important, and those who favor them should not fail to vote.

EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION.

We were truly gratified at this assemblage of gentlemen, preachers, teachers and statesmen, who, at their own expense, assembled at the capital to see what could be done for the advancement of learning and education. We had not commended their praiseworthy conduct as we now feel we should have done.—Raleigh Sentinel.

Very good. We believe the RALEIGH NEWS was the first paper in the State that editorially endorsed the announcement for the late Educational Convention at Raleigh. From the time the announcement was first made until the Convention assembled, we appealed to the teachers and friends of education throughout the State to attend. When the Convention assembled, we expressed our high gratification at the ability, numbers and character of the delegates. When the Convention adjourned, we said that a stimulus had been given to the cause of education by the meeting, and that we believed good had been accomplished.

We feel that we have done our duty up to this time in commending the praiseworthy objects for which the Convention met. The good it has done lies rather in the promise than in the performance. We have no compunctions of conscience on the score of not having done our duty to promote the success of the Convention.

MISQUOTATION.

The Sentinel, in a column and a half editorial yesterday on the Educational Convention, quotes the RALEIGH NEWS as follows:

"The speeches have been mediocre and below."

Whereas we said: "The speeches have generally been mediocre and below." We said that some good speeches had been made, but that the speeches we heard were generally mediocre.

We conceded the ability of the Convention from the first. Some able men present did not speak at all. Some able men made poor speeches, in our opinion. The idea we intended to convey, and which we think we expressed clearly enough for any one to understand was that the generality of the speeches we heard were indifferent and below mediocrity.

We do not believe the Sentinel omitted the word "generally" on purpose in quoting from us, but it is a material word.

We stand by our "first swearing," but our cotemporary should not misquote us.

The Editor of the Sentinel is of opinion that if the Convention or its speakers were below mediocre that it would require a miracle to produce good speeches.—Raleigh Sentinel.

Nobody has said the Convention or its speakers were below mediocre. The Convention may have been of unsurpassed ability and yet some very poor speeches may have been delivered. We stated that in the British Parliament, some of its most learned members would sometimes deliver dry and uninteresting speeches. We have never attacked the ability of the Convention. But notwithstanding its ability, we heard some very indifferent speeches while it was in session—made too by men of considerable reputation for learning and scholarship.

This is the substance of our criticism. We were speaking of the poor speeches we heard. We heard some that were "monstrous poor," and we had the candor to say so.

We repeat, the Convention was one of decided ability, but the generality of speeches we heard will not do to brag on, and we don't intend to brag on them either. That's all.

We are at a loss to understand how the debate was irrelevant when it was upon a question whether the Bible should be used in schools as a text book.—Sentinel.

Two of the delegates whose speeches have been the most highly complimented of those who took part in the discussion on the introduction of the Bible in our schools, agree with us that the debate was premature and irrelevant. One of these is one of the statesmen named by the Sentinel among the prominent men of the Convention, and the other is a distinguished divine, also mentioned and complimented by the Sentinel. If our neighbor is incredulous in regard to this statement, we will send him the names of these two gentlemen, if he will promise not to publish them without their consent. He can consult them privately, as they reside in the city.

MONOPOLIES.

The RALEIGH NEWS has given forth no uncertain sound in its opposition to Railroad monopolies.

From the date of its first issue to the present hour, it has steadily and with all the ability of which it is possessed taken ground against the control of our lines of travel by foreign corporations.

The increasing power of Railroad monopolies in some of the Northern States, and the oppression and extortion which have followed that increase of power, contain a terrible warning to the people of the South.

We have received for publication the following article on the subject of Railroad affairs in North Carolina, which contains matter for serious consideration. We believe that a fight is imminent with foreign Railroads on the one hand, and the interests of the people of North Carolina on the other. When that contest comes, the NEWS will be found battling, as it has heretofore done, against the domination and tyranny of alien corporations:

[For the Daily News.]

The landmarks and barriers of our liberty have been the growth of centuries. Their destruction may be the work of a night. Having gained by ages of struggle all the safeguards to that liberty that wisdom deemed necessary, we seem to think that nothing remains to be done. Every man busies himself about his own affairs, and eternal vigilance is no longer the price of liberty. Because certain laws have become crystallized into sentences in our Constitution and our Bill of Rights, we think we are safe. "Monopolies are contrary to the genius of a free people," was the sentiments of our ancestors, and good English blood was shed to procure the enactment that they "ought not to be allowed." That sentence, fraught with truth and suggestive of an historic struggle, still glistens in our Bill of Rights. But let us ask ourselves what effect does it have? We have the letter—do we appreciate the spirit of the law? Let us see. In a chamber in a distant city, North of the Potomac, not many months since, a secret conclave was held. Eight, perhaps ten, persons attended. Their object was money. Their means money. Their requirements, the subversion of the laws of sovereign States, the purchase and control of the Legislature and the government of the people against the interests of the people through the votes of their representatives. Soon it was known that the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company had passed from the control of the State and was to be governed by a Ring in Baltimore—then the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad fell. The Coast-line was gone. Then delay. But the leaven was working. Here and there a prominent lawyer, and now and then a newspaper cried "great is Diana of the Ephesians—it is better that our railroads should be managed from Baltimore. The 'Ring' can manage our railroads more profitably than North Carolinians, and they love our people better—they will put down freights." Then the Richmond and Danville Railroad sold out. The Piedmont Railroad passed away like a morning dream from the control of its private stockholders, and the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad followed like the necessary corollary of a geometrical problem. But the North Carolina Railroad broke the monotony of success. Conceived, urged, inaugurated by the best minds of North Carolina as a State work, it had triumphed over all obstacles. State aid had been lavishly expended to make a State road that should, in one continuous road of iron, unite the East and the West. The State was proud of its work. The State owned a controlling interest, and to its projectors, it seemed impossible that this road, built with North Carolina money, emphatically for the development of North Carolina, and owned largely by the State, could be made tributary to a coterie of schemers, used against the interests of the people and made to dissever the East and the West. A moment's lull, Money was placed where it could do the most good. Rumors floating in the air, a moaning and creaking of timbers, and then "without sound of woe or voice of them that wept," the grand old structure toppled to its ruin. Next morning the public journals quietly informed us that the N. C. Division of the Richmond & Danville Railroad would carry passengers and freight from Raleigh to Greensboro and Charlotte. So passed away, in the twinkling of an eye, the labor of years, the conceptions and achievements of Swain, Morehead, Graham and other statesmen who had labored for North Carolina. The work now seemed complete. From Wilmington to Weldon, from Danville to Charlotte, from Greensboro to Goldsboro, our railroads were in the hands of foreigners, and we paid tribute on overselves, our wives and children, our meat and corn, our wine and fruit, to enrich the Ring. Was not this enough? No. North Carolina was captured, but she must be divided. A passenger must not be allowed to pass on one continuous road from Charlotte to Raleigh. Impious hands are put forth to change the guage from Greensboro to Charlotte, and, if unrestrained, the intercourse between Eastern and Western North Carolina (to facilitate which that very road was built by the taxes of the people of this State,) will be more difficult than between North Carolina and New York. Whether North Carolina courts will allow this last outrage, this turning away of the appropriation made to build a North Carolina Road to the purposes of a Ring, the extortion of our people, and the and the bisection of our State is a question for the immediate future to the observing mind. Other events too are close at hand. While we write, freights have already been greatly raised; soon this Ring that has plaid its hand upon Augusta and sends its cars and passengers through to Richmond via Wilmington, and via Charlotte & Danville will combine its two lines, under one management. Mr. Buford, the gentlemanly President of the R. & D. R. R. may suddenly find himself de trop and be "relieved without a pension." Mr. Wynn, who so lately controlled the destinies of the Richmond & Petersburg R. R., may be "put in his little bed" and pensioned off on the sleeping-car department perhaps. Mr. Sprigg, second in command of the time-honored Petersburg & Weldon R. R. (the second oldest Railroad in the Union) may find himself treated like a sergeant and paid like a Road-master—and there are others yet who will find that they have betrayed indeed, but they will still be unlike Judas in this that they have not received their promised thirty pieces of silver.

If we had been the NEWS, when our attention was called to Walker's definition of "mediocre," to-wit: "Middlerate, middling, mean," we would have retracted on pented as Col. Hargrove did, or at least we would have "qualified" by saying the Convention was equal to mediocrity.—Raleigh Sentinel.

Our neighbor seems to be rather obtuse. We did not say the Convention was not equal to mediocrity. We bore testimony to its ability. The speaking that was done was not equal to its ability. The debates would often take the wrong direction. The views of some of the speakers were deficient in practical suggestions, and the subjects that were discussed were sometimes left in confusion.

We state once for all that we have never attacked the ability of the Convention; but we thought there were many indifferent speeches delivered and we gave our honest opinion when we said they were generally mediocre and below.

Our offense hath this extent; no more.

We do not inquire by what law of decency or editorial propriety the NEWS after reproaching the Sentinel for quoting from Judge Battle, quotes from a "leading delegate, including a prominent officer of the Convention." We shall not inquire by what authority that paper quotes from "an able member of the legal profession, himself an eloquent speaker." But we will inquire, how dare he to be guilty of such conduct, after imputing it to us as a reproach if not a crime.—Raleigh Sentinel.

We do not think any reasonable man, after reading the whole of our article will think that we imputed a crime or reproach to the Sentinel in quoting Judge Battle's opinion. If our language is capable of such a construction, we regret it, and beg pardon of the public for conveying an impression which certainly it was never our purpose to convey.

We thought the Sentinel spoke somewhat contemptuously about incompetent judges and the opinions of printers and editors, and we stated that we gave our opinion and not Judge Battle's.

If the Sentinel had given Judge B's. opinion, without going out of its way to assail the NEWS as incompetent, we would have remained silent.

If the charge of the NEWS is not too trifling to require serious reflection, then the NEWS has prostituted its columns, sacred and dedicated only to editorial utterance, to the utterances of unnamed and unnamable delegates who belonged to a Convention "below mediocrity.—Raleigh Sentinel.

Not having said the Convention was below mediocrity, we do not consider it a prostitution of the columns of the NEWS to say that a number of delegates to the Convention, and some of them leading ones, concur with us in the opinion that many of the speeches were very indifferent. We repeat that a prominent officer of the Convention endorsed our criticism as just.

If the Editor of the Sentinel has any curiosity on the subject, and will apply to us for their names, we will give them to him, including that of the prominent officer of the Convention, so that they will no longer be nameless and unnamable.

One word as to the sin or crime we have committed by introducing Judge Battle's opinion into the sacred columns editorial.—Raleigh Sentinel.

There is no need of apology for such a "sin or crime." The Sentinel could not do a better service for its readers than to devote its columns to the opinions of such a man as Judge Battle. His purity of character, eminent learning, moderation and prudence, and upright, dignified, and courteous demeanor entitle his opinions to peculiar weight, and there would be a considerable improvement in the tone of our cotemporary if it make Judge Battle's opinions its guide.

Judge Battle was President of the Educational Convention. He said it was the ablest body that had assembled in the State for years. He had the best opportunity for knowing. We quoted from the NEWS to show that we had said that in ability and character the Convention was a gratifying success. But we think Judge Battle will agree with us that we had quite a number of dry and impracticable speeches from some of the delegates.

THE ASSOCIATE EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL.

The Associate Editor of the Sentinel, after quoting our article saying that our comments on an editorial in the Sentinel were not intended for the Associate, as he was not the author of the editorial criticised, adds.

"With this statement before the public, the Associate withdraws his article of yesterday, and is ready to let the matter rest. He trusts that what has occurred will not interrupt the hitherto friendly relations between the Editor of the NEWS and himself."

Having already withdrawn all reflections in our article that the public might think were intended for the Associate, we reciprocate the expressions contained in the above quotation.

We will only add that when the Associate told us the afternoon preceding the day our comments were published, that he was not the author of the criticism of the NEWS, our editorial was locked up in the forms. We thought, however, that while the public would probably infer that some of our allusions were intended for the Associate, yet that our note would be satisfactory stating that as he was not the author, we would so publish in our next issue and withdraw our comments as alluding to him.

BUFFALO SPRINGS,

Mecklenburg County, Va.

This Watering Place, three-fourths of which has recently been purchased by Col. Thos. F. Goode, is now owned by himself and T. Paxson. It is open for the reception of visitors under the management of the latter, assisted by Thomas W. J. Baptist, Esq.

It is asserted with entire confidence that these waters are among the most powerful of known remedies in a very large proportion of the maladies with which the human family is afflicted. They are specially indicated in all affections of the Stomach, Liver, Spleen, Bowels, and Urinary Passages, and in the various complicated Diseases peculiar to Females, and it is in this latter class of Diseases that the greatest power and efficacy of these waters have been attested.

In support of the claim so confidently made for them, reference is made to the following testimony of eminent medical men, and of prominent citizens of Mecklenburg, who have been familiar with this Spring for many years:

Letter from Dr. O. F. Manson, an eminent Physician of Richmond.

RICHMOND, VA., July 5th, 1873.

COL. THOS. F. GOODE:

Dear Sir—In reply to your favor of the 3d inst., I would say that the Buffalo Springs, in the county of Mecklenburg, Va., have long enjoyed a deservedly high reputation with physicians and the public for possessing valuable medicinal properties.

During a residence of twenty-one years in the State of North Carolina, which was yet in the vicinity of Buffalo, I had numerous opportunities o witnessing the beneficial influence of its waters. I do not remember their exact chemical analysis, but I know they are strongly Chalybeate, and I have observed their sanative effects in diseases attended with, or succeeded by, general debility, such as Atonic Dyspepsia, Malarial Cachexia, Chlorsis, Anemia, Hypocondriasis, Hysteria, Functional Cardiac Palpitation, &c.

The waters have been found specially curative in cases of Chronic Intermittent Fever, many intractable cases having been thereby restored to perfect health in a brief space of time.

Very respectfully yours,
O. F. MANSON, M. D.

From Dr. S. G. Harriss, of Boydton

BOYDTON, VA., July 3d, 1873.

COL. THOS. F. GOODE:

Dear Sir—I have learned with much pleasure that you have recently purchased an interest in the Buffalo Springs. I deem it a matter of congratulation to that large class of invalids who usually resort to this watering place, that its resources and accommodations will be fully developed under the administration of yourself and its present enterprising proprietor.

I have been for a long time fully persuaded that the remedial powers of these waters had only to be fully known to secure for them a popularity second to no other in this State. For the last twelve or fifteen years I have been accustomed to advise those of my patients suffering with a certain class of diseases to go there, with the utmost confidence in their improvement.

In general debility, consequent upon long attacks of disease, especially malarial fevers, dyspepsia in all its forms, diseases of the bowels, liver and urinary organs, it is in my opinion equal to any known mineral water, and I regard it as a specific for all those diseases arising from loss of tone and strength on the part of the reproductive organs in the female.

Very respectfully yours,
SAM'L G. HARRISS, M. D.

From Drs Jones and Jordan, of Boydton.

BOYDTON, VA., July 31, 1873.

COL. THOS. F. GOODE:

In reply to your favor asking our opinion in regard to the medicinal virtues of the waters of Buffalo Springs, we have to say that we regard them equal for certain diseases and conditions of the system to any in Virginia. We can recommend them especially for all diseases requiring a tonic in which iron is needed. In chills and fevers and atemic condition of the digestive system, including various forms of dyspepsia, enlargement of the spleen and liver, resulting from continued attacks of chills and general debility. Not only as a tonic, but as an alterative, they will prove useful in a large class of diseases, especially those of a chronic character, as Rheumatism, Scrofula, Neuralgia, &c.

These waters have also a most salutary influence on diseases of the kidneys and bladder, and are particularly efficacious in diseases of females.

Yours truly,
WM. H. JONES, M. D.
M. M. JORDAN, M. D.

From Dr. G. A. Wilson, an eminent Physician of North Carolina, and formerly Professor in the Medical College at Richmond, Va.

GRANVILLE CO., N. C., July 8th, 1873.

COL. THOS. F. GOODE:

My Dear Sir—I have been much gratified to hear through a mutual friend of your recent purchase of the Buffalo Springs property, and of your determination to have improvements somewhat commensurate with the medicinal value and virtue of these waters. I have been observing the effect of these waters upon diseased conditions of the human system for more than thirty-five years. As a general tonic, an invigorator and renovator of the great functions of nutrition, (no matter what may have been the cause of the deterioration,) I know of no equal in the shape of physic and no superior in the medicinal waters of America. The particular class of cases which are most benefitted embrace the whole of that numerous family which physicians recognize as resulting from the long continued action of malarial causes. Situated as these waters are, at the head of the basin of the Albemarle Sound, easily accessible to all the malarial regions of our insalubrious seaboard, I regard as the compensating bounty of a beneficent Providence. I do not hesitate to say that the man who will bring these waters into such notice as they deserve will become a public benefactor.

Very truly your friend,
GOODRIDGE A. WILSON.

From Hon. Wm. Townes, Mecklenburg.

The undersigned having been born and raised within a few miles of the Buffalo Springs, in the county of Mecklenburg, and now an old man, takes pleasure in recommending the water to the afflicted. In cases of Dyspepsia and Cutaneous disorder, I regard them as infallible. I have visited for years all the mountain springs, and consider these waters equaled by few, and surpassed by none for many diseases.

After having been a sufferer from Dyspepsia in a severe form for some years, I was entirely relieved by the use of these waters, after having tried without benefit the justly celebrated Alleghany Springs of Virginia. For delicate females it may be appropriately characterized as the Pool of Bethseda.

It is situated in a healthy portion of our county, and I take pleasure in recommending the present proprietors to all in search of either health or pleasure.

I believe verily that the people of lower Virginia and North Carolina would be as much benefitted by our location as they would be anywhere, and I advise them to come to Buffalo.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BILLOUS.—If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, despondent, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly in morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Billiousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. Sold by all first-class druggists.

How unnecessary the anguish many persons undergo from rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, toothache and earache. We say unnecessary because the application of Mexican Mustang Liniment to the affected part, or a few drops of it in the ears or tooth, affords instantaneous, and what is better, permanent relief. For cuts, wounds, bruises, swellings, and all injuries of diseases which require treatment ext rnally this liniment is everywhere regarded as the most potent and reliable healing agent in existence. For all external injuries or ailments of horses and cattle, it is infallible.

His Honor, HENRY POTTER, late Judge of the United States Court for the District of North Carolina, gave the following as his opinion of Beckwith's Pills:

"For some ten or twelve years past I have been in the habit of using DR. BECKWITH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS in my family, and consider them so valuable a domestic medicine, that I never suffer my stock to be exhausted. I have used them with good effect in dyspeptic cases, under various modifications, and have found them efficacious in relieving from Sick Headache, and from all the usual symptoms of functional derangement of the viscera. As an apperient, they are excellent. I have long had the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with the inventor of these Pills. He is a gentleman of talents, integrity and worth, and he ranks high in the science of medicine and the healing art.

H. POTTER."

FRIDAY.....JULY 18, 1873.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Another colored volunteer company is to be formed in Wilmington.

A new station has been established on the Western N. C. R. R., between Icard and Morganton.

The Rutherford county jail has been beautified by the addition of a classic portico.

The wheat and oat crop in the Rutherfordton section is turning out much better than was expected.

Wilmington is doing a staving business in dog badges. Up to Tuesday 841 had been sold.

The mica fever is unabated in Rutherford and other adjacent western counties. Several new mines have been opened.

Rt. Rev. James Gibbons, Bishop, of Richmond, Va., was to have preached at Gaston (Catholic) church, 12 miles from Wilmington, on Tuesday last.

I. B. Grainger, has been elected a member of the Wilmington Board of Aldermen in the place of Alderman Wise, resigned.

The ladies of the I. O. of Good Templars, of Newbern, are to give a Promenade Concert and Ice Cream Festival this evening.

A petition is circulating in Newbern asking Gov. Caldwell to pardon Hardy Jones, who is under sentence to be hanged on the 8th prox.

The plow and cotton chopper, the invention of J. B. Underwood, of Fayetteville, is spoken of in high terms by intelligent farmers in Cumberland.

Says the Piedmont Press: "Mr. John Wilfong, one of the oldest and most highly respected of our citizens, has carefully preserved a few landmarks of the olden times. He has some beads taken from an Indian grave near his residence on the South Fork, and several pieces of Continental money, "issued by authority of Congress at Halifax, N. C., in 1776."

The Stockholders of the Chester & Lenoir Narrow Guage R. R., held a meeting in Newton on the 10th inst. Col. J. F. Hoke presided and M. E. Lowrance and Capt. John Justice acted as Secretaries. Some 2664 shares of stock were represented. A resolution was adopted looking to the purchase of the King's Mountain Railroad.

Rutherfordton is blessed with a Mayor in the person of one Nathan Scoggin, an ex U. S. Commissioner, who became notorious in the recent Kuklux war. Mr. Scoggin set the citizens of his village a bad example last Sunday by "going for" one A. L. Grayson, one of the editors of the West-Carolina Record, and indulging in a profusion of profanity and boisterous behavior in the streets.

Says the Wilmington Journal of the 16th inst: "George L. Mabson, the colored aspirant for the Postmastership at this place, has returned here from Raleigh with his petition in his pocket, and is to leave for Washington City, or Long Branch, (which is about the same thing) this morning, for the purpose of laying the papers before the President Mabson's friends report that he was very successful while in Raleigh, and that Governor Caldwell and other prominent office holders have endorsed him, while, on the other hand, the Brink men assert that neither Caldwell, Settle nor Wm. A. Smith would sign the petition."

A Queer Marriage.

A little English village, near Weston-super-Mare, was recently the seen of much talk, on it being reported that the widow of a farmer was about to marry one of the laborers on her farm. The rumor arose in this way: Among the employees on the farm in question was a laborer named John, who hitherto had the credit of being rather deficient in intellect. Some friends, by way of a joke, persuaded John that it would be no bad thing for him if he could become master of the estate on which he worked, adding that the widow was open to an engagement, and that all he had to do in the matter, by way of making preliminary arrangements, was to put in the "askings" at the parish church. This John accordingly did, but the afternoon following the publication of the banns, several friends called at the farmhouse and congratulated the widow—who was in entire ignorance of what had been done—on her dermination to again alter her name. The lady, who was somewhat indignant, at once sent for the culprit, who, in putting in appearance, was severely censured for the step he had taken. Poor John protested his ignorance of the great sin he had committed, and offered readily to withdraw the 'askings,' but to no such proposal as this would the "fair rebel" listen. Said she, 'You have scandalized my character the eyes of the world, and marry me I am determined you shall.' Hodge had no alternative but to consent to such terms, and the marriage took place.

PRESIDENT DAVIS SERENADED BY HIS FORMER SLAVES.—St. Louis Christian Advocate: "During the late visit of the Hon. Jefferson Davis to this city, while he was being called on by crowds of respectable citizens and receiving manifestations of respect from hundreds of the most prominent and worthy ladies and gentlemen of the city, there occurred a little episode of a very pleasing character. One night, during his stay at the Planters' House, he was serenaded by some colored people who were formerly his slaves. After their dulcet strains had ceased, Mr. Davis called them into his room, where, after cordial greetings on both sides, and a little chat about old times, he made each a handsome present. At another time during his stay he was called on by an 'old aunty' who had been the nurse of his oldest child. The affection that the ex-slaves manifested for their former master, and the interest which he manifested for them and their future welfare, were really affecting."

An eminent journalist defines editorials to be "Shavings cast from the well worn mind to be blown for one brief minute before the wind of public opinion, and then forgotten for all eternity."

A bug got into the ear of a Tennessee student and produced temporary insanity.

Judge Daniel Wilson, of Lynchburg, Va., is dangerously ill.

Unheard of Horrors in a Lunatic Asylum.

A most horrible and almost incredible condition of affairs in the Vermont insane asylum is described in the report of the Legislative committee appointed to investigate the management of that institution. The committee's first discovery was that the asylum, which is controlled by a private corporation, was greatly over-crowded, 485 patients being packed into a space intended to accommodate but 300 at the most. This, however, is a trifling matter in comparison with other revelations. Seventy-five of these unfortunates were thrust away in subterranean dungeons, dark, damp, foul and pervaded with unendurable stenches. Some were confined in apartments nine feet by four in size, with air and ventilation only through augur holes bored in the doors. The active as well as the passive inflictions put upon these poor people proved equally inhuman. Among them was the punishment of the bath, in which the patient, securely bound, is placed in a bathing tub and a continuous stream of cold water allowed to fall upon his head. This torture, it may be remarked in passing, was one of the most excruciating known in the dark ages, resulting usually in insanity or death. To this asylum of horror the committee also state that sane men have been consigned through fraud and bribery. The picture is as complete as Charles Reade could make it, but without the romance of fiction. The reality is something for the Legislature of Vermont to deal with promptly and severely, for it is too disgraceful for belief, except as attested by an official investigation such as has produced the astounding report.

Two poor young men, Barbour and Phillips, recently sent to the Virginia penitentiary from Harrisonburg, made a fine lair of boots as soon as they got there, and forwarded them to Colonel O'Farrall to pay for his services in defending them. Honor among thieves.

The Connecticut Legislature adjourned last week, leaving three vacancies on the Supreme Court bench. The failure to fill them arose from a disagreeing between the two Houses, which could not be reconciled or compromised.

The following neat little paragraph is from the Louisville Courier-Journal:

An exchange speaks of "rare Ben Butler." Very rare indeed. The country will never hail Butler with the plaudit, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Dr. George McRoberts and William Embry, a boy about 8 years of age, died in Stanford, Ky., a few days ago, having taken strychnine under the impression that it was quinine. It was taken from a bottle in a drug store marked quinine.

The piers, on either side of the river, of the bridge which is to connect New York and Brooklyn will be higher than the Washington Monument and will probably cost $7,000,000.

J. C. Cloud has accepted a wager of $5,000 to row in a small skiff from Philadelphia to New Orleans. He starts in a couple of weeks, and expects to make the trip in 145 days.

Rumor hath it that Prince Fred Grant is soon to marry Miss Matie Dunlevy, daughter of Hon. J. C. Dunlevy, of Dayton, Ohio.

Out of 498 deaths reported last week in Philadelphia 299 were under two years of age, and of that number 159 died of cholera infantum.

A good looking white girls, daughter of respectable parents, living in Appling county, Ga., recently eloped with a negro of inky blackness.

A colored man named Carter was drowned on Tuesday morning while bathing in Hannon's pond, near Petersburg, Va.

Joseph H. Cooper, an esteemed citizen of Petersburg, Va., died on Tuesday at the Blue Ridge Springs.

The surviving Massachusetts veterans of the Mexican war will have a reunion in Boston to-morrow.

PROPOSALS FOR CITY PUMPS.

Bids will be received by James C. King, Chief of Police of the City of Raleigh, to keep City Pumps in repair, for the period of one year from the acceptance of the bid.

By virtue of Ordinances of the City, the Pumps of the City are now placed under the supervision of the Street Commissioner, who is required to note all failures of the contractor to comply with the contract to keep the Pumps in repair; and for every failure, after twenty-four hours notice, the contractor shall be fined one dollar per day for each day that any Pump may remain out of order; it is made the duty of the Street Commissioner to report any failure and the fines resulting therefrom, at the next regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners, after such failure shall have occurred. Sundays are excepted as to notification and fines; the Street Committee are empowered to annul so much of the contract as may apply to any five Pumps as their discretion may dictate. It is further provided, that the contractor shall clean out such well or wells as the Street Commissioner may decide need cleansing.

Stock and fixtures must be supplied new wells within 15 days after the contractor shall have been notified by the Street Commissioner that the same have been dug and walled in, and failure to do so within the time mentioned, shall subject the contractor to the same forfeitures as for failure to keep the pumps in repair.

The successful bidder will be required to give bond for the faithful performance of the contract, conditioned as hereinbefore set forth and as per blank form for bidders, which can be had by applying to the Clerk of the City.

All bids must be sealed up, addressed to James C. King, Chief of Police of the City of Raleigh, and must be endorsed "Proposals to keep City Pumps in order."

JAMES C. KING, Chief of Police.

Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, Raleigh, June 9th, 1873.

Be it known to all whom it may concern:

That in conformity with section 8, chapter 153 of the acts of the General Assembly passed at the session of 1872-'73, in relation to amendments of the Constitution of the State:

I, TOD R. CALDWELL, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do order so much of the preamble of said act as sets forth the alterations proposed and agreed to, and the second section of said act to be published for thirty days preceding the first Thursday of August, 1873, in the Raleigh "Daily Sentinel," the "Daily Era" and the "Daily NEWS", published in Raleigh, and also for the same length of time in the following Weekly papers, published in the various Congressional Districts of the State to-wit:

First District—"North Carolinian," Elizabeth City; "Express," Washington.
Second District—" News," Goldsboro; "Mail," Rocky Mount.
Third District—"Statesman," Fayetteville; "Star," Wilmington.
Fifth District—" New North State," Greensboro; "Chronicle," Milton.
Sixth District—"Democrat," Charlotte; "Spirit of the South," Rockingham.
Seventh District—" American," Statesville; "Watchman," Salisbury.
Eighth District—"Pioneer" and "Expositor," Asheville.

That portion of the preamble ordered to be published is in the following words, to-wit:

"Whereas, the last General Assembly, (three-fifths of the whole number of members of each House concurring,) the bill containing the same having been read three times in each House, proposed the following alterations of the Constitution of the State, to-wit: Alteration in relation to the public debt; alteration in relation to the office of Superintendent of Public Works; alteration in relation to the State census; alteration in relation to exemptions from taxation; alteration in relation to the University; alteration in relation to the sessions of the General Assembly; alteration in relation to the Code Commissioners; alteration in relation to Federal and other officers holding office."

The second section of the said act ordered to be published is in the following words, to-wit:

"It shall be the duty of the Sheriffs in each and every county in the State to open polls at the several election precincts in his county on the said first Thursday in August next, and the same shall be kept open for one day, from the hour of eight o'clock in the morning to the hour of seven in the afternoon, when all persons qualified to vote according to the Constitution, may vote for or against the ratification of each of the said amendments, those desiring such amendments to vote with the written or printed ticket 'For Amendments,' those of a contrary opinion to vote with a written or printed ticket, 'Against Amendments.'"

The attention of County Commissioners and Inspectors of the Election is also called to the 4th section of said act of Assembly which provides that separate ballot-boxes shall be furnished for each amendment to be voted on.

Done at our City of Raleigh, the [L. S.] ninth day of June, A. D. 1873, and in the ninety-seventh year of American Independence.

TOD R. CALDWELL.

By the Governor;
J. B. NEATHERY, Private Sec'y.

☞ The papers named in the foregoing proclamation will publish as therein directed and forward bills to Executive office

A PROCLAMATION.

By the Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, RALEIGH, June 10th, 1873.

WHEREAS, Official Information has been received at this Department that vacancies exists in the Senate branch of the General Assembly of North Carolina by reason of the resignation of Hiram E. Stilley and J. B. Respess, representing the Second Senatorial District, and that vacancies exist in the House of Representatives of the said General Assembly by reason of the resignation of Alfred J. Morrison, representative from Lincoln County, and Richard C. Badger, representative from Wake County,

Now, therefore, I, TOD R. CALDWELL, Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of authority in me vested by law, do issue this my Proclamation, commanding the Sheriffs of the counties composing the Second Senatorial District of North Carolina to open polls and hold an election at the usual voting places in said counties on THURSDAY, THE SEVENTH DAY OF AUGUST, A. D., 1873, for two Senators; and I do further command the Sheriffs of Lincoln and Wake counties to open polls and hold elections in their respective counties on THURSDAY, THE SEVENTH DAY OF AUGUST, A. D., 1873, for a member of the House of Representatives, all of said elections to be held, votes compared and returns made in all respects in accordance with the laws of the State of North Carolina.

Done at our City of Raleigh, the 10th day of June, A. D., 1873, and in the [L. S.] ninety-seventh year of American Independence.

FRIDAY,.....JULY 18, 1873.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

In order that the people may vote understandingly on the amendments to the Constitution, at the ensuing election, we deem it necessary to give in full the eight clauses in that instrument proposed to be altered, together with the alterations themselves.

FIRST: IN RELATION TO THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The present Constitution in Article I, Declaration of Rights, provides as follows:

"Sec. 6. To maintain the honor and good faith of the State untarnished, the public debt, regularly contracted before and since the rebellion, shall be regarded as inviolable and never be questioned; but the State shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection, or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave."

This section is amended by striking out the first clause down to and including the word "but," so that the amended clause in Article I will then read:

"Sec. 6. The State shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of, any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave."

Another alteration in regard to the public debt is provided for in the same amendment, by striking out section 4, Article V of the present Constitution, which is as follows:

"Sec. 4. The General Assembly shall, by appropriate legislation and by adequate taxation, provide for the prompt and regular payment of the interest on the public debt, and after the year 1880, it shall lay a specific annual tax upon the real and personal property of the State, and the sum thus realized shall be set apart as a sinking fund, to be devoted to the payment of the public debt."

So that the above section will be entirely stricken out and the amended Constitution will not make it compulsory on the Legislature, by express language, to provide for the payment of interest and principal of the public debt.

SECOND: IN RELATION TO THE OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Article III, section 1, of the present Constitution names among the other officers of which the Executive Department shall be composed, a Superintendent of Public Works, who shall be elected for a term of four years by the qualified voters of the State, at the same time and places, and in the same manner as members of the General Assembly.

The amendment proposes to strike out the words "Superintendent of Public Works" wherever they occur in the Constitution, thus abolishing that office.

THIRD: IN RELATION TO THE STATE CENSUS.

In the present Constitution, Article II, the following provision is made for taking a State Census:

"Sec. 5. An enumeration of the inhabitants of the State shall be taken under the direction of the General Assembly in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and at the end of every ten years thereafter; and the said Senate Districts shall be so altered by the General Assembly, after the first session after the return of every enumeration taken as aforesaid, or by order of Congress, that each Senate District shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and Indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the formation of a Senate District, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to two or more Senators."

The amendment proposed to this Article is to strike out all that precedes the words, "the said Senate Districts," in section 5, and to strike out the phrase "as aforesaid, or," the parts so stricken out relating to the census, so that the section as amended will read:

"Sec. 5. The said Senate Districts shall be so altered by the General Assembly at the first session after the return of every enumeration taken by order of Congress, that each Senate District shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and Indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the formation of a Senate District, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to two or more Senators."

The object of this amendment is to do away with the unnecessary expense of taking a State census under the direction of the General Assembly, inasmuch as the same work is done by the national Government.

FOURTH: IN RELATION TO EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION.

The present Constitution, Article V Revenue and Taxation, provides as follows:

"Sec. 6. Property belonging to the State or to municipal corporations, shall be exempt from taxation. The General Assembly may exempt cemeteries, and property held for educational, scientific, literary, charitable or religious purposes; also wearing apparel, arms for muster, household and kitchen furniture, the mechanical and agricultural implements for mechanics and farmers, libraries and scientific instruments, to a value not exceeding three hundred dollars."

The amendment proposes to change this section by inserting after the word "instruments," the words "or any other personal property," so that the section as amended will read:

"Sec. 6. Property belonging to the State, or to municipal corporations shall be exempt from taxation. The General Assembly may exempt cemeteries, and property held for educational, scientific, literary, charitable or religious purposes; also wearing apparel, arms for muster, household and kitchen furniture, the mechanical and agricultural implements of mechanics and farmers, libraries and scientific instruments or any other personal property, to a value not exceeding three hundred dollars."

FIFTH: IN RELATION TO THE UNIVERSITY.

The present Constitution, Article IX, has the following on the subject of the University at Chapel Hill:

"Sec. 5. The University of North Carolina, with its lands, emoluments and franchises, is under the control of the State, and shall be held to an inseparable connection with the free public school system of the State."

The amendment proposes to strike out this section entirely, thus severing the University from the common school system, and insert the following in lieu thereof, so that the amended Constitution shall read:

"Sec. 5. The General Assembly shall have power to provide for the election of trustees of the University of North Carolina, in whom when chosen shall be vested all the privileges, rights, franchises and endowments heretofore in anywise granted to or conferred upon the trustees of said University; and the General Assembly may make such provisions, laws and regulations, from time to time as may be necessary and expedient for the maintenance and management of said University."

The following sections of Article IX, relating to the University, are also stricken out:

Sections 13, 14 and 15, relating to the appointment of trustees by the Board of Education, and the officers powers and rights of the trustees. These matters will hereafter devolve on the Legislature, if the amendment relating to the University is ratified.

SIXTH: IN RELATION TO THE SESSIONS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The present Constitution, Article II Legislative Department, provides as follows:

"Sec. 2. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet annually on the third Monday in November, and when assembled shall be denominated the General Assembly."

This section is to be amended by striking out the word "annually," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "biennially," so that the section amended shall read:

"Sec. 2. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet biennially on the third Monday in November, and when assembled shall be denominated the General Assembly."

This amendment also strikes out the word "annually" in section 6, Article III, and inserts the word "biennially," in reference to the requirement of the Governor to communicate to the General Assembly each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon.

SEVENTH: IN RELATION TO THE CODE COMMISSION.

The present Constitution, Article IV Judicial Department, makes the following provisions concerning the Code Commissioners:

"Sec. 2. Three Commissioners shall be appointed by this Convention to report to the General Assembly at its first session after this Constitution shall be adopted by the people, rules of practice and procedure in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing section, and the Convention shall provide for the Commissioners a reasonable compensation.

Sec. 3. The same Commissioners shall also report to the General Assembly as soon as practicable, a code of law of North Carolina. The Governor shall have power to fill all vacancies occurring in this commission."

The amendment proposes to strike out both these sections, thus abolishing the Code Commission.

EIGHTH: IN RELATION TO FEDERAL AND OTHER OFFICE-HOLDERS.

The present Constitution, Article XIV, provides as follows:

"Sec. 7. No person shall hold more than one lucrative office under the State at the same time: Provided, That officers in the Militia, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Public Charities and Commissioners appointed for special purposes, shall not be considered officers within the meaning of this section."

The amendment proposes that this section shall read as follows:

"Sec. 7. No person who shall hold any office or place of trust or profit under the United States, or any department thereof, or under this State or any other State or Government, shall hold or exercise any other office or place of trust or profit, under the authority of this State, or be eligible to a seat in either House of the General Assembly: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall extend to officers in the Militia, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Public Charities or Commissioners for special purposes."

There were eighteen amendments originally proposed, but the eight above specified were all that passed the General Assembly by the requisite two-thirds majority.

These eight amendments are to be submitted separately for ratification or rejection, at the election to be held on Thursday, the seventh day of August. Any person qualified to vote may vote for or against each amendment, with a written or printed ticket with the words "For Amendment," or "Against Amendment." The amendments that receive a majority of the popular vote will be duly ratified. A part or all of them may be either ratified or rejected.
